BY THE COURT:

CYNTHIA M. RUFÉ, J.
